

King County

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, King County residents are served every single day by public servants at the city, county, and national level

WHEREAS, these unsung heroes do the work that keeps our County and our country working; and

WHEREAS, many public servants, including military personnel, police officers, firefighters, border patrol officers, embassy employees, and healthcare professionals, risk their lives each day in service to the people of the United States and around the world; and

WHEREAS, public servants include: teachers, doctors and scientists; train conductors and astronauts; nurses and safety inspectors; laborers, computer technicians and social workers, and people in countless other occupations who provide the diverse services demanded by the American people of their government with efficiency and integrity; and

WHEREAS, without these public servants at every level of government, continuity would be impossible in a democracy that regularly changes its leaders and elected officials.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Dow Constantine, Executive of King County, do hereby proclaim the week of May 5 to May 11, 2019 to be

Public Service Recognition Week

in King County. I encourage all residents to recognize the accomplishments and contributions of government employees at all levels – federal, state, county, and city.

Dow Constantine
King County Executive
